RE: Letter of Introduction and Acquaintance

Dear Mr. Marby:

I present my compliments and wish to extend my appreciation to you for your continuous support for the improvement and upliftment of the Liberian Telecommunications Sector.

I wish to acknowledge the work of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) which is a nonprofit, private organization and the governing body for the Internet. ICANN is responsible for the technical operation of the Domain Name System (DNS) and the policies that define how the names and addresses of the Internet work. I have been working tirelessly with our partners to restore stability in the Telecommunications sector in Liberia at the same solicit training opportunity for some of our employees in the technical area of the Ministry.

We have been having problem with our Domain Name which is the dot GOV. LR and we need the help of both ICANN and the Governmental Advisory Council (GAC) in the area of technical assistance, logistical and training support in order to catch up with the rest of the Countries in the Sub region. My email address and mobile number Redacted for Confidentiality Redacted for Confidentiality

Please accept the compliments of my high esteem and best regard

Very Truly Yours,

Cllr. Cooper W. Kruah, Sr.
Minister of Posts & Telecommunications
