Dear Sir/Madam,

This is a letter of endorsement for a generic Top Level Domain (gTLD) name application dot tennis submitted by Tennis Australia Limited (Tennis Australia).

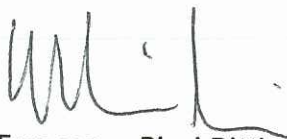

The International Tennis Federation (ITF) is the peak global body for the sport of Tennis. The ITF is charged with developing, promoting and the delivering the sport of tennis globally with particular focus on over 200 affiliated National Associations, together with six Regional Associations, and over 75 million registered tennis players. The ITF oversees the Rules of Tennis, including the technical specifications for courts and equipment, and the running and enforcing of a joint anti-doping programme.

The ITF has been involved with Tennis Australia, which is the peak body for the sport of Tennis in Australia and a member of the ITF and which is also the owner and operator of one of the only four "Grand Slam" tennis tournaments in the World (the Australian Open, held in January each year), for over 100 years.

On behalf of the ITF I would like to endorse the gTLD application by Tennis Australia, which would support the wider promotion of the sport to the tennis community.

I also confirm that I am authorised to endorse this application on behalf of my organisation.

Yours sincerely,

Francesco Ricci Bitti
President

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is a letter of endorsement for a generic Top Level Domain (gTLD) name application dot tennis submitted by Tennis Australia Limited (Tennis Australia).

The United States Tennis Association (USTA) is the national governing body for the sport of tennis in the United States. Additionally, the USTA is the owner and operator of the US Open Tennis Championships which is held annually in New York, USA, and which is one of the four "Grand Slam" tennis tournaments in the world. The USTA has worked extensively with Tennis Australia, the national federation of tennis in Australia which is also one of the owners and operators of a "Grand Slam" tennis tournament (the Australian Open), for over 100 years.

On behalf of USTA, we hereby endorse the above referenced gTLD application by Tennis Australia, which would support the wider promotion of the sport to the tennis community.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is a letter of endorsement for the generic Top Level Domain (gTLD) name application "dot tennis" submitted by Tennis Australia Limited.

The Women's Tennis Association "WTA" is the worldwide governing body for women's professional tennis. We oversee 54 events in 33 countries including three tournaments in Australia. Tennis Australia is a member of the WTA and owns and operates three annually sanctioned WTA tournaments – Brisbane, Sydney and Hobart. The (3) WTA events are in addition to Tennis Australia organising the Australian Open (one of only four Grand Slams of tennis in the world – the others being Wimbledon, the French Open and the US Open tennis tournaments).

On behalf of the Women's Tennis Association I would like to endorse the gTLD application by Tennis Australia, which would support the wider promotion of the sport to the tennis community.

I also confirm that I am authorised to endorse this application on behalf of my organisation.

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is a letter of endorsement for the generic Top Level Domain (gTLD) name application "dot tennis" submitted by Tennis Australia Limited.

ATP Tour, Inc. ("ATP") is the governing body of the international men's professional tennis circuits – the ATP World Tour, the ATP Challenger Tour and the ATP Champions Tour. With more than 60 tournaments in more than 30 countries, the ATP World Tour showcases the finest international athletes competing in the world's most exciting venues. With players and fans hailing from virtually every country in the world, the ATP governs one of the only truly global leagues in all of sports. ATP has been involved with Tennis Australia since the beginning of ATP's existence as both ATP and Tennis Australia desire to grow the sport of tennis on a global basis. ATP and Tennis Australia collaborate on a multitude of issues, including player issues and because Tennis Australia is the organiser of both ATP events and the Australian Open (one of only four Grand Slams of tennis in the world – the others being Wimbledon, the French Open and the US Open tennis tournaments).

On behalf of ATP, I would like to endorse the gTLD application by Tennis Australia, which would support the wider promotion of the sport to the tennis community on a global basis.

I also confirm that I am authorised to endorse this application on behalf of my organisation.

Yours sincerely,

Jeffrey T. Reel
