

Michael A. Flynn
Director

BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Flynn has been both a testifying and consulting expert economist for nearly twenty-five years, specializing in antitrust, economic damages, intellectual property, class actions and other complex business litigation and consulting engagements. In addition to assuming overall responsibility for the preparation of expert submissions, including designing and directing the supporting analyses and drafting the reports themselves, Mr. Flynn also serves as an expert economic consultant to counsel, assisting in preliminary case analysis, discovery strategy, expert discovery and dispositive motions and trial. He has case experience in a broad range of industries, markets and products, including, among others:

- Insurance (including business interruption, workers compensation, auto, life, and property and casualty).
- Healthcare (including hospital and physician services, brand name prescription drugs and other pharmaceuticals, and medical instruments and hospital products).
- Energy (including petroleum, natural gas and gasoline, with specific case experience in production, pipelines, royalties, refining, distribution, and marketing).
- Professional sports (including professional sports leagues, teams, stadiums and franchise relocations).
- Computer and electronics hardware and software (including network operating systems, digital media software and video game consoles and software).
- Transportation (including passenger airlines and waterborne freight).
- Other consumer and producer goods (including infant formula, high-pressure laminates, carbon dioxide and consumer credit reports).

Mr. Flynn was enrolled as a National Science Foundation Fellow in the PhD Program in Economics of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts, from 1971 to 1974, where he completed all general and field qualifying examinations for the PhD degree. Mr. Flynn received his AB degree from the University of California, Berkeley, where he was the recipient of the Department of Economics Citation as the Outstanding Graduating Senior.
